The TNF Group is pleased to announce a new addition to our brand portfolio after being recently granted the license and distribution rights for Champion sportswear in Australia and New Zealand.

We are looking forward to re launching this iconic brand back into the Australian market as we enter this exciting growth phase within our business. We are currently developing a new range of technical sports bra's with Champion USA, which currently holds 15 of the top 25 bras sold in the United States.

We look forward to providing our customers and suppliers with a now even larger range of innovative and stylish products available from all good sporting retail outlets nationally.
